(2019-2020)
Class V

Dear Children,

Summer holidays are here at last.
Time dear children to have a blast.
It's time to swim, dance and play.
But don't keep studies totally at bay.
Here are some activities to add to your fun.
Do these to keep busy when you don't hop skip and run.

Important Instructions: Do all the activities as instructed and file them, make an interesting file cover for your Holiday Homework.

English

Reading relaxes our mind and body.

Reading gives us information about people, cultures and countries.

Reading improves our imagination and vocabulary.

So, dear children

1. Read at least 2 of the following books.

- a) The Room on the Roof by Ruskin Bond
- b) Test of my Life by Yuvraj Singh
- c) Malgudi Adventures by RK Narayan
- d) Tom Sawyer by Mark Twain
- e) Dr. Jekyll and Hyde by RL Stevenson

- Then, write the name of the book and the name of the author with a drawing related to the story on an A4 size sheet, from any one of the books you read.

- From the same two books, pick out ten words of 6-7 letters each. Words that were new to you. Now find the meanings and the opposites of these words and learn the spellings.

Write these words, their meanings and their opposites on another A4 size sheet. Write your name behind the sheet.

Remember to learn the spellings, meanings and opposites of the words as this knowledge will be required for an interesting class activity.

2. I am an Author.

Here's your chance to become a writer. Put on your thinking caps and create your own story. It could be:

- a) A thrilling detective story
- b) A mysterious science fiction
- c) A spine-chilling ghost story
- d) A fun-filled adventurous story

This must be your own story.
